1. The Conseil de la Resistance in Cherbourg is composed of three main groups: the O.C.M., Liberation and the Front National:

The Chief of the Conseil de la Resistance, M. Groulin, is an O.C.R. leader and his organization holds the majority of seats in the Conseil. The O.C.R. is generally composed of merchants, landowners and notables who, prior to the armistice, were Rightists or extreme-Rightists.

Liberation, which claims to have been the most active and efficient movement in the Department, is led by and generally composed of Socialists and C.G.T. men. In fact all the Resistance Socialists and Union men are members of Liberation.

As in the rest of France, the Front National is here the Communist Party's resistance organization. It is not as influential here as it is reported to be in other regions.

2. The right hand man to M. Grenier is M. Bocher (Beauchet), who seems to be as well the most prominent labor leader of the department. Bocher is at the same time secretary of the Regional Socialist Federation, secretary of the Merchant Sailor's Union, secretary of the Union des Syndicats, representative of the I.T.F. and head of the local Liberation movement. He is a very efficient man and seems to be respected and esteemed by his political adversaries.

great number of people here are suspicious of Resistance because of the presence of Communists and Socialists. Moreover, they are very reserved towards foreigners as a rule, and they are not sure of what the Allies intend to do. They are also puzzled about the currency which has been introduced. On the part of labor, there is a sincere enthusiasm for the victories of the democracies somewhat tempered by the way local problems are handled by military authorities. For example, the Army of the Navy have hired dozens of workers to repair the Cherbourg harbor, but ~~they have done it~~ without consulting the unions. (They have ~~thus~~ given work to ~~a lot of~~ former Todt workers, more or less reliable, while skilled workers who were in Resistance Movement are left unemployed. Instances of this kind are frequent.

21. According to Lt. Colonel Murray, who is a member of the 8888th Central Postal Directory, in the segregated area there was a "club" under the command of Colonel (P) Poterak. It was a complete or "first class" club and it was popular in the area. It was the first to join the 8888th Central Postal Directory. In addition, there was a "club" or "bar" on "Trinidad" and it was one of the "first class" clubs in the area.

22. The Commission's statement in the report is that the flights and contacts between themselves and the people were gradually cut down. The fact that the flying ceased altogether is not at all surprising. It would even be an indication of great success if possible.

Notes on London

1. The situation is full of confusion with many rumors and decisions suspended for some security. The communists and socialists are the main parties of the political parties, and their strength must be on a completely different basis. The Christian League (United Evangelical League) are large in the British place with the radical-socialist very strong force. As for the religious organizations, both the U.K. Evangelical League and the Christian League are strong, and are strong in the political place. It is difficult to estimate the amount of their religious influence. Their leaders are strong, and are willing to take any figures, but they appear to be about equal in strength to the radical-socialist.

2. The British League, directed by Mr. Winter, is a very strong force. The British League has 300,000 members in London (as compared with 100,000 in the U.S. in the days of the U.S. League) (as compared with 100,000 in the U.S. in the days of the U.S. League). It is pointed out that the U.S. League was traditionally a radical-socialist force in 1939, of 300,000 members. It was socialists and communists; he stated that if elections were held in 1940, the British League would be a very strong force.

3. The British League is the political situation is confused by the existence of the British League, and that since the work of the League is very strong, these groups will disappear and give way to the political parties. He mentions that the leaders of the U.S. League are motivated by a sense of personal interest, their object being to replace the old position and the old leaders. He states that the British League is a very strong force, and that the British League is a very strong force, and that the British League is a very strong force, and that the British League is a very strong force.

4. The British League, in private conversation, and Mr. Winter, Socialist League of America, in his speech before the Congress of the Socialist League of America, in London, in September 1939, stressed the need for holding a very strong force. He pointed out that the British League is a very strong force, and that the British League is a very strong force, and that the British League is a very strong force, and that the British League is a very strong force.

5. The British League is a very strong force, and that the British League is a very strong force, and that the British League is a very strong force, and that the British League is a very strong force, and that the British League is a very strong force.

CONFIDENTIAL

6. The Socialists of Egypt certainly do not see the reason's vote. They feel that the situation is likely to be strongly influenced by the clerics when they go to the polls. Despite this fact, however, Mr. Khabib is working strenuously to be elected next February.

3. Continuation of the investigation of the case of Mrs. Van: The first statement received of the defendant was that of a friend, in person, at Medan, who was chairman of the committee of the local branch of the organization of the party at Medan. About 300 delegates and party members were present at the first party session in the Department of the Interior, Medan, on the 1st of May, 1941, with a view to the election of a new in a session, held at Medan.

Mr. Petro was also highly critical in the question of national unity with the Communist world, and he pointed out through a question in regard to opening his country with the Communist world, he deplored that level with a view toward achieving unity between the two sides he killed. However, reaction was finally raised unanimously supporting the continuation of discussions even if there is a national point to be made. Above unity of the working class, and emphasizing the duties of the Communist Party for harmonious relations with the people, the British group has been critical and no doubt to be anti-Communist but expected, in return, that the Communist would not be anti-socialist.

that the CGP was not maintaining a sufficiently independent and apolitical attitude.

12. In discussing relations of the socialist party with resistance groups, J. Soldani, member of the Bureau Federal of the party for the far and center of the CGP, expressed his deep regret over the fact that fusion between the socialist party and the CGP has been impossible. He said he had hoped this fusion of non-socialists of the CGP with the best elements of the socialist party would constitute a great revolutionary socialist party of the future. During the debate on the subject, he took vigorous, almost explosive exception to an insinuation by Oct. Mistral, member of the Bureau Federal of the party, that the leaders of the CGP were simply a group of activists who were trying to take advantage of the situation of une political power.

13. As for foreign policy, the Congress expressed itself as opposed to the hegemony of any one great power, whether it be Britain, the United States or Russia, and in favor of a system of collective security, with all the democratic nations of the world equally represented in an international association of nations. This association should have its own army, credit, transport, etc. in order to be able to guarantee the peace. Regarding the treatment of Germany, the Congress voiced its opposition to any dismemberment of the country, but approved a long occupation with a severe allied control of all German industry and commerce and a long-range program for the reeducation of German youth.

14. Communist Party: According to Fr. Austerlitz, secretary of the London section of the socialist party, the Communists claim to have 4,000 registered members in the CGP. Communist leaders interviewed declined to quote any figures.

15. M. Rothier, prominent Communist member of the CGP, maintains that the Communists have gained many new followers in the CGP since the war, at the expense of the socialists. He claims that this results to a large extent from the Communists' nationalist policy and also from their young, vigorous leaders, as compared with the socialists who still have the same leaders representing the old regime. He stated that the policy of the Communist Party would remain nationalist in the future; that it would be difficult to return to a revolutionary program.

16. Rothier asserted that the Communists get along better with the Christian Democrats than with the socialists, since the latter - as he put it - place party interests above the national interests.

17. The Communists are opposed to the holding of elections next February. Their reasoning, ostensibly in a nutshell, is as follows: the elections were scheduled before the recognition of the Provisional Government by the Allies as a means of holding a popular referendum and thus showing the Allies that de Gaulle and the country were still firm. Now that the Allies have recognized the de Gaulle Government, the pressing need for immediate elections no longer exists. Besides, it would be not fair to ask for the return of the three million prisoners and deportees before proceeding to the polls. According to M. Frigot of the CGP, however, the real reason the Communists are opposed to the elections is their fear of losing some of the strength which they now hold on the various departmental and political liberation committee. Apparently, he agrees with all indicated by personal opposition to the holding of elections at the present time, since the women's vote constituted an experiment and he was not in favor of conducting such experiments while France was still at war. (Article may well feel that to hold elections now would mean a loss of strength for the Vichy as well as for the Communists.) Etienne Allegre, Communist municipal delegate, stated flatly that he believed the elections should be postponed, although the party is making its plans so as to have everything in readiness in case the elections are held in February.

18. Both Allegre and Pothier criticized the conduct of the war, Le Saux, for not being vigorous enough in his handling of the affairs of the government, particularly the procurement of adequate food supplies. Pothier praised Le Saux for his personal courage and for his active participation in resistance activities but pointed out that he was formerly secretary of the gouvernement de Vichy and that he had not broken away from the old habits of the plodding government functionaries.

19. Pothier described Admiral Lambert, Comandant en Chef of Toulon, as a reactionary of the old tradition - along with the great majority of higher naval officers at the Toulon naval base.

20. According to Allegre, the Toulon edition of Jeune-France, the French paper published in Marseille, has a daily circulation of 12,000 and a Sunday circulation of 15,000.

21. Mouvement Republicain Populaire. The Toulon section of the MRP was formed about two months ago. Its officers are: M. Labrousse, president; M. Jouzian, attorney, secretary; M. Guenier, banker as the David Armand, treasurer. A departmental federation of the MRP is in the process of organization; Labrousse hopes to have it organized before the end of the year. Labrousse claims a membership in the Toulon section of 1,000 - but this appears to be an exaggeration. Labrousse stated that the Toulon edition of the Christianisme newspaper, published in Marseille, has a local circulation of 2,000. This Toulon edition was started two months ago.

22. The Union Feminine Civique et Sociale (UFC) is the women's adjunct of the MRP at Toulon. As in Paris, the UFC in Toulon is making serious efforts to capture the women's vote. A series of three free weekly political lectures, starting 13 December 1940 had been organized by the UFC.

23. Radical-Socialist Party. It is universally stated that the Radical-Socialists are principally absent as a political force in the Var. No party headquarters has been established in Toulon, and aside from the brief newspaper announcement, no sign of any Radical-Socialist activity was discovered.

24. SN and SF. Pothier, of the SF, is optimistic over the possibility of fusion between the SF and the SN in the Var section after the agreement just reached between the two groups in the Department of the Gard. On the other hand, Arigé, of the SN, points out that many members of his organization are hesitant about uniting with the SF, because they see in this an attempt

15. According to M. Berone, representative of the CGT on the CFE, there were 29,000 registered members of the CGT in the year of September 1967, and compares with 24,967 members in 1967. He points out one of the most urgent problems before the CGT in the year to be that of the regularization of salaries. Two workers are respectively paid 18 francs per hour and the salaries of equally skilled workers in other trades. This situation creates by the means who would work in order to attract labor to certain high-priority jobs. For example, workers in the building trades are getting up to 31 francs per hour, while skilled plumbers and carpenters earn only 12 francs per hour. Berone points out that it is not possible to raise all salaries to the highest levels established by the Germans, since this would cause an inflationary trend. Therefore, the CGT was faced with the delicate task of working at its own time for the reduction -- to a certain extent -- of some salaries and the raising of others.

26. Forces Repubblicaines de Securite and Gardes Nationales (Republican and National Guard). The Forces Repubblicaines de Securite have a total strength of 300 officers and men in the 1st, under the command of Lt. Colonel (PH) Berrai. Their headquarters are at Pailloles, about 7 km. west of Toulon, at the Chateau de Segreto, a requisitioned private estate formerly occupied by Dr. Michylin de (Groussac) de Segreto.

27. The two companies under Barrat form part of the RS of the 15th Military Region (Vichy zone, Italian Alps, Swiss Alps, Alpes Maritimes, Haute-Savoie, etc.) and are led by Regional Commissioners named and placed under the command of General Gallot. The RS are an official, paid militia, working under the pretext of such treatment of the 15th Military Region, with the principal task of combating bandits, collaborationists and black partisans and of maintaining order. In the East, the RS has the additional task of guarding the 10 political prisoners at the camp of Iznik. Members of the RS in the Vichy zone are fewer. The RS are paid 2,055 francs monthly officers and non-commissioned officers receive regular pay too.

20. It is stated that he is not in need of arms and equipment for his men. There are rifles for only 40 percent of his 300 men, and these total were consisted of government rifles and the light machine guns. Sarraf pointed out that it would mean a great deal for the discipline of his men if they could all be properly armed and equipped. He hastened to add that in spite of circumstances, discipline was good. An inspection tour of the quarters, however, revealed a rather bad one; discipline, the men lacked the military neatness and bearing of trained soldiers. German prisoners working on the premises were more prompt than the members of the IRA to come to attention absolute at the approach of it. Colonel Barker.

79. Gomez stated that he had sent detachments out on expeditions against the

CONFIDENTIAL

29. Barrett, who was formerly departmental chief of the Illinois Department, and who is still a member of the departmental committee of the United Negro College Fund (formerly "Intelligence"), claims responsibility for the UP in the tax act of 1960. Barrett stated the name of the UP were the men on lines of the UP but that the flower were special divisions devoted only their spare time to this task.

51. P.M. According to Lt. Colonel Burns, all the remaining PW of the 1st Airborne are located in the Parachute Brigade at Wanau, under the command of Colonel (P.M.) Latentari. This unit consists of about 1,000 men, and is preparing to leave shortly for the front to join the New South Wales. In addition, there are PW who have been formed an opposite the PW. According to one of the reports, the opposite has a total membership of 100.

72 American sailors stationed in Toulon report a number of safe flights and encounters between themselves and French men, principally over women. The feeling is fairly general among American sailors at Toulon that the French would overwhelm an American at every opportunity possible.

33. As their aids, the French are, to a greater or lesser degree, scornful even the American bombing of Tokyo, which destroyed a large part of the city; over American treatment of German Jews; and over the fact that American food supplies to the civilian population have not arrived in greater quantities. Caravans (a Cleveland, about 15, return of the last war and requested for over two years during this one) resented bitterly the American soldiers and sold cigarettes, ration and soap at high black market prices and had not even anything else, contrary to what was expected of them. Cigarettes were sold at 50 to 100 francs a pack; soap at 50 francs a cake.

74. ... On, Communist member of the 21 and 22nd Div of La Liberté du Mex, stated that he evoked a general feeling that several days, a manifestation to Vichy, and continued relations with the Vichy Government even after his recall; that Washington was not pleased with the De Gaulle government and would have preferred a second or a counterpart to De Gaulle; that a report in a circular in a newspaper stated to the effect that there were before the liberation of Vichy, several diplomatic representatives had penetrated into the city and had discussed with Vichy officials the possibility of setting up a new French government by replacing the De Gaulle Government.

CONFIDENTIAL

35. Resister also stated that some people were no longer ship for the Allies but were to go with the decision of the Government to disarm the French Civilian Militiamen. In this connection, he stated that the GPR and the French Government were necessary, since they had no confidence in the French Government of the past and who had served the Vichy regime.

Sanitary Situation

36. Sanitary Situation. Toulon has suffered heavily from allied bombing. The Sanitary Situation was particularly hard hit, but a good deal of reconstruction has caused in the center of town as well. According to the municipal bureau of Reconstruction, of a total of 15,341 houses in Toulon, 993 were entirely destroyed, 1,341 seriously damaged and 3,998 more suffered damage. Since it is extremely difficult to obtain building material, to make repairs, houses which were only partially damaged are deteriorating rapidly from the effects of the weather. Many people who are here are temporarily living with friends and relatives, makeshift quarters; a large number have not yet returned to Toulon from the interior, where they had sought refuge during the bombing. Toulon's normal population is of 100,000 and dropped to 50,000 at the end of August; it had risen to about 60,000 at the end of October, and is now about 110,000.

37. The municipal sanitary reconstruction estimates needs of building materials for repairs as follows:

- 0.5 tons of tile shingles for roofing
- 3,000 tons of bricks
- 5,000 tons of plaster
- 1,000 tons of cement
- 1,000 tons of lime

200,000 square meters of window panes.

Temporary roofing repairs are being made with wood planks.

38. Food. Food conditions in Toulon are bad, the most serious shortages being milk for children, and fats and oils. There is only enough milk to meet the needs of infants up to 9 months. According to Dr. Winterstein, in order to provide milk for the 12,000 children of 9-18 months, 600 cans of condensed milk would be required daily. Another 300 cans daily would be needed for the 1,500 children 18 months - 3 years of age. The sources expressing the urgency of this problem. Dr. Winterstein remarks that if American milk is shipped to Toulon, it is put in a store to the municipal office for distribution, instead of to the Red Cross. He claims that on previous occasions the American milk was distributed through the French Red Cross, much of it found its way into the black market and never reached the children for whom it was intended.)

39. Because the fact that the War is an important producer of olive oil, there is a serious shortage of this product on the market. According to Allaire, municipal authorities in charge of distribution, whenever stocks of olive oil do exist in the region are blocked by the French Government for distribution to important branches. This is a source of discontent among the people.

41. Notes: Services: Electricity and water supply are normal. The streets are partially lighted at night. Water services are functioning in San Jose and its suburbs. There is one sanitary water supply system, and one sanitary water supply system with connections into the San Jose area water supply system.

Reported Replacement of "Front National" by a New Paper

The following report is from a member of the staff of "Front National" and is a close friend of Thorez. This information was disclosed directly to a well-tried source, who has extensive contacts in French press circles:

1. It appears improbable that "Front National" will continue to be published after the elections, because of the breaking down of this political formation, which is of no further interest - except perhaps a marginal one - to the Communist Party. However, until now, Thorez has been opposed to its disappearance.

2. At present the leaders of the CP are planning to replace it by a more effective organ, and are studying three possible solutions:

(a) A newspaper which might be called "Ce Matin", and which would be supplementary to "Ce Soir" which would be responsible for its publication. The directors of "Ce Soir", which is a successful paper, are opposed to this idea, because they do not see the necessity for placing an additional load on the budget.

(b) A paper exclusively for women and which would treat all questions interesting to women: the home, the factory, food, the child, clothing, education, etc. But it is wondered if women have not adopted the habit of reading their husbands' paper, and would not be reluctant to indulge in the expense of an extra paper.

(c) An evening paper which would sell for 3 fr., and which would be similar to "Le Monde" in form, and would be the leftist opposite number of that paper. This paper would be destined particularly for the elite, and would stress cultural matters, accurate documentation, etc. The difficulty lies in assembling a first rate editorial staff to handle the political, economic, financial and artistic departments of such a paper.

3. It appears likely that a decision will be reached before the end of May.

Although this report is based principally on information received from HOMOEDRAL, the chief facts have been confirmed by HOMESTRETCH and HOMOGENE. Much of the information, especially the excerpts from CADI reports, was taken from the original CADI documents which HOMOEDRAL lifted from the CADI files. (One of HOMOEDRAL's sub-agents got the char-woman who cleans the CADI offices to lift a few reports each night for a period of a week.) The Italian immigrant sent by this station to the CADI office is Ettore GUIDETTI.

1. The Comité d'Action et de Défense des Immigrés (CADI) was organized at Paris in November 1944 and operated overtly until ordered dissolved as a subversive group by a decree of the Ministry of the Interior in December 1948.

2. The principal organizations which joined to form CADI are as follows:

Parti Communiste Français
Confédération Générale du Travail
Conseil National de la Résistance Front National Union des Femmes Françaises
Union des Patriotes Soviétiques
Comité Italien de la Libération
Comité d'Unité de la Défense Juive
Union National de la Colonie Tchéco-Slovaque en France
Union Démocratique des Hongrois en France
Aide à la Patrie Polonaise
Front National Arménien
Italia Libera
Front National Roumain
Union de la Jeunesse Républicaine de France
Union Nationale Espagnole en France
Fédération des Espagnols Résidant en France

3. As the name CADI implies, the organization was formed to aid foreign immigrants in France. It was not ostensibly founded as a political organization, nor was it ostensibly designed to support any particular political party. Its apparent purpose was rather to give social and legal aid to any and all immigrants in France. Its social program was quite simple and was largely devoted to the distribution of food, clothing, shelter, and money to needy immigrants. Its legal program was two-fold: first, it offered legal assistance to the individual immigrants through its lawyers; and secondly, it sponsored a series of measures in the Chamber of Deputies which were designed to benefit the status of all immigrants.

4. The measures which CADR sponsored were officially known as the "resolutions pour la promulgation d'un Statut Juridique des Immigres", and demanded the following benefits for the immigrants:

- a. That "Cartes de residents privileges" be granted to all immigrants, without exception, after three years residence in France.
- b. That immigrants be allowed to choose their place and type of employment.
- c. That immigrants be granted all the social benefits to which a French citizen is entitled.
- d. That expulsion from France be made dependent on a court order, rather than on a decree of the Ministry of the Interior.

5. CADR sponsored the above measures for all immigrants. For those certain immigrants who had volunteered for service in an Allied army, or had taken part in the Resistance, or had been deported to Germany, CADR made the following demands:

- a. That naturalization be granted by judges of the peace upon simple proof of the immigrant's claim to be in one of the above categories, and that all other naturalization requirements be waived.
- b. That all invalids, deportees, and widows of men of this category be entitled to the same social benefits as French citizens of similar classification.
- c. That the term "Mort pour la France" be added to the titles of the deceased of all immigrants of this category.

6. For those immigrants of the above category (para 5) who preferred to maintain their original citizenship, CADR demanded:

- a. That they be allowed to choose their place and kind of work and that they be permitted to change their profession whenever they so desired.

- b. That they receive all social benefits granted to French citizens.

- c. That all "administrative measures resulting from their antifascist activity before and during the War be annulled." (Field comment: This is a direct translation from the French and refers to any legal actions taken against immigrants who, as Communists, refused to obey the orders of the French government between September 1939 and the German attack on Russia.)

7. CADI was largely successful in realizing its demands, for the Statute of Immigrants which was passed by the Consultative Assembly (the Statute was composed of the ordonnance of 24 March 1945, the ordonnance of 2 November 1945, the ordonnance of 19 October 1945, the ordonnance of 25 October 1945, and the decree of 25 December 1945) gave to immigrants an equality of rights approximate to those enjoyed by a French citizen. The most active supporter of the CADI measures in the Consultative Assembly in 1945 was Madelaine BRAUN, prominent Communist and one of the leaders of the FRONT National. The Communist Party and the COT also heavily backed these measures.

8. Paragraphs 4 through 6 represent CADI's original program; it was overt, it was designed to benefit all immigrants, and it was supposedly non-political. To implement its program, CADI established branch offices throughout France in the cities which had large numbers of immigrants. These branch offices were known as Centres d'Action de Defense des Immigres. CADI also took the lead in organizing the annual National Congress of Immigrants (Congres National des Immigres), the first one of which was held in Paris on 25 January 1946. H. BERACHA, representative of the Ministry of Industrial Production presided. In 1947, CADI again sponsored the congress, now called the International Congress of Immigrants in France (Congres International des Immigres en France), which took place in Paris 15 February to 17 February. Some 15,000 delegates, representing 3 million immigrants of all nationalities, attended. Justin GODARD, president of CADI, made the principal speech. Louis BAILLANT, secretary-general of the COT and president of the CNI, was a member of the sponsoring committee and sat on the speakers' platform. The sponsors' committee for the 1947 Congress which was also held at Paris in February, consisted of Justin GODARD, Louis BAILLANT, Jacques CHOLQS, Albert RAYET (delegate of the Ligue des Droits de l'Homme), PINHEU (director of the Union de Jeunesse Republicaine de France), Madelaine BRAUN, and Joseph BONNET (lawyer for the Lettres Francaises in the KRANCHEVO trial).

9. Although the ostensible and apparent purpose and activities of CADI were those outlined in paragraphs 8 to 6, its true purpose and its clandestine activities were quite different. CADI was not the non-political organization that it professed to be, but was in fact a tightly controlled Communist organization. To be sure, the legislative measures it supported benefited all immigrants, but they were designed primarily to help Communist immigrants. Similarly, CADI's program of aid to immigrants was restricted solely to Communist or pro-Communist immigrants. The true purpose of CADI was to aid Communist and pro-Communist immigrants to enter France; to aid them in establishing themselves in France; to place them in industries, mining, and agriculture; to organize them into faithful followers of the Communist Party; and finally to control them.

10. In order to realize its true purpose, CADI embarked on a clandestine program which may be divided into three major parts: the supplying of certain necessary identification papers to illegal Communist immigrants, the placing of these immigrants in certain jobs, and the organizing of these particular immigrants, along with all the foreign laborers in France, into submissive groups which would follow the orders of the COT and the Communist Party.

11. Evidence of this first activity is found in the CADI office in Marseille. This office is currently operating a program whereby any avowed Communist immigrant coming to the office is furnished a "carte de travailleur étranger", given a job in industry or agriculture, and, for the sum of 5,000 francs, is furnished with a naturalisation decree.

12. (Field Comment:

Having heard from two sources that CADI was operating such a program, this station sent on 10 March 1949 one of source's sub-agents, an Italian immigrant who had entered France clandestinely, to the Marseille CADI, at 8 Place de la Prefecture, to ascertain if these reports were true. At CADI our sub-agent was received by Georges LINIVER. Our sub-agent then presented himself as an Italian immigrant who entered France clandestinely and asked that he be given a "carte de travailleur étranger". LINIVER asked our sub-agent who had sent him to CADI, to which the sub-agent replied, "I am a Communist." LINIVER asked to see the sub-agent's Party card, and the latter showed it to him. LINIVER then asked the sub-agent if he had a job in France, to which the sub-agent replied in the negative. LINIVER told the sub-agent to return in two weeks at which time he would give him an "autorisation de séjour", and in three weeks, he would provide him with a "carte de travailleur étranger". LINIVER also promised to give our sub-agent an agricultural job in Sete (Hérault). Finally, LINIVER told our sub-agent that for 5,000 francs he would provide him with naturalisation papers. Our sub-agent replied that he wanted such papers, but that he would first have to acquire the money. The interview ended with both men raising their fists in the Communist salute.

13. From questioning our sub-agent, it appears that the papers CADI furnishes are genuine papers which they obtain through the connivance of certain individuals in the Marseille Prefecture.

The sub-agent's sister unfortunately died in Paris on 18 March. The sub-agent then left immediately for Paris and has not yet returned. Upon his return to Marseille, this station will send him back to CADI to claim his "carte de séjour" and "carte de travailleur étranger". We will also give him 5,000 francs with which to acquire his naturalization papers and we will direct him to accept the proffered job in Sète.)

14. Additional evidence that CADI is engaged in supplying these papers is found in the fact that on the 24, 25, and 26 of January 1949 four foreigners presented themselves at the office of the Confédération Générale des Internés et Déportés Politiques de la Résistance et des Victimes de l'Oppression Nazie et du Nacisme where, thinking they were at the CADI office, they asked that they be given "cartes de séjour". These men were:

✓ HILLER, Robert - born in Baden, Germany
✓ JACOBSON, Carl - born in Hamburg, Germany
✓ GEORGES, Morice - born in Seckelycsanakely, Hungary
✓ LASZLO, Alexandre - born in Marevakeky, Hungary

These four had entered France clandestinely and each had been told before leaving his own country to apply to CADI for his French papers.

15. The following excerpts from CADI reports indicate CADI's activity in placing immigrants in industries and in agriculture.

a. "The Poles sent by CADI into the iron and coal mines number 40,000. In addition CADI has placed 20,000 Polish agricultural workers in France." (Field comment: From a report by LOUKA, delegate of the Conseil National Polonais en France.)

b. "In the large chemical and metallurgical factories of Marseille one-third of the employees are immigrants. In the Aciéries du Nord, 340 workers are foreigners; the Cotel Plant, 485 workers are immigrants. CADI has placed many of these men and will continue to place as many again." (Field comment: From a report of Guido ZAMIS, CADI secretary in Marseille.)

c. "There are 3,800 foreigners in the coal mines at Carmaux-les-Mines. CADI has placed 20% of these men." (Field comment: From a report of the CADI representative for the TARE department.)

16. The following excerpts from CADI documents indicate CADI's activity in organizing the immigrant laborers into submissive groups ready to follow CADI-COT-Communist orders:

a. "It is necessary that CADI take the lead in organizing these foreign laborers in strong and democratic unions. We must protect them from their capitalist oppressors and we must aid them in their struggle against their employers. In CADI and in the COT, the immigrant finds his strength." (Field comments: From a report by Louis PETIT, one of the organizers and national leaders of CADI.)

b. "It is through CADI that the immigrant masses are able to mobilize for the tasks which lie before the whole country. It is CADI which must educate the immigrants in the ways of true democracy and it is for CADI to lead them in their struggle." (Field comments: From a report of LAROCHE, secretary-general of CADI.)

c. "Before the war, the countries from which these immigrants came were under the control of Fascist and reactionary regimes. The immigrants left their homes without hope of returning. Now things have changed; the countries from which they came are today true democracies and they now have the problem of helping those of their former citizens who are now living outside their borders. It is CADI who, working with these democratic governments, is attempting to obtain the rights of liberty and democracy for these immigrants now in France." (Field comments: From a letter written by Louis PETIT.)

d. "We are proud to be from a region where the majority are immigrants, the immigrants who organized the great strike of 100,000 workers during the occupation under the leadership of Auguste LECORUR. In those times, all orders were executed clandestinely, and we will execute them today with the same enthusiasm. CADI must lead the way." (Field comments: From a speech by the CADI secretary in the Pas-de-Calais.)

e. "The control of the recruiting of immigrant workers must be done in a rigorous manner by CADI and the French workers' unions. We must prevent the immigrant worker from becoming a tool in the hands of the capitalists." (Field comments: From a speech by GIOVETTI, (CNU), delegate of Italia Libera.)

17. Further evidence of CADI's activity in organizing the immigrant workers is found in CADI files. - Report after report from various CADI delegates throughout France list by nationality the number of immigrants in their areas, and in addition many of the reports note the number of these immigrants who are under CADI control. These reports are all similar, and it is sufficient to quote from one: "More than 50% of the miners in the Loire basin are immigrants; of these, the following percentages adhere to CADI: 98% of the Poles, all the Yugoslavs, 80% of the Portuguese, 60% of the Italians, and 75% of the Hungarians." (Field comment: From a report by CADI secretary from the Loire.)

18. Although supposedly dissolved by Ministerial decree in December 1948, CADI continues to operate clandestinely throughout France. Its present national president is Justin GODARD, former minister; FRYDMAN, (fnu), a member of the Comité d'Unité de la Défense Juive, is vice-president; LAROCHE, (fnu), is secretary-general. National Headquarters are located at 108 rue de l'Université, Paris. The principal organizations supporting CADI today are those listed in paragraph 2, except for those of these organizations which have ceased to exist.

19. CADI functions in conjunction with these organizations and in addition it has its own delegates scattered throughout France in the industrial and mining regions. Among the CADI delegates are the following:

MORCADO - delegate of the Federation des Espagnols
Résident en France
LOUKA - delegate of the Conseil National Polonais
en France
GIOVETTI - delegate of Italia Libera
KOVACS, Muranyi - secretary-general of the Union
Démocratique des Hongrois en France
PAHAS - member of the Front National Hellénique
MLIK - member of the Front National Arménien
VINCIGUERRA - president of the Union des Volontaires

SOBU - delegate of the Front National Roumain

ZIGESY - delegate of the Union Nationale de la Colonie

(Field comment: It is realized that some of the organizations of which these men are listed as delegates have been dissolved, notably Italia Libera and the Front National Armenien. However, the names of the individuals and their affiliations are shown exactly as they appeared on CADI documents.)

80. CADI is well-financed. Its principal financial support comes from the Communist Party and the OOF. (Field comment: CADI documents acknowledge unspecified contributions from these organizations. One of source's informants, the chief of the Foreigners' Section of the Marseille Prefecture, has stated that he knows the Marseille CADI has an undetermined quantity of rubles, presumably received from the Communist Party.)

81. In Marseille, the CADI office was established by Guido ZANIS and George LINIVER in March 1945. It was originally located on the Blvd. du Muy, but in September 1947 it transferred to 3 Marche des Capucins. In February 1948 it moved to 97 rue Longue des Capucins and then, after it was ordered dissolved, it continued to function clandestinely at 2 Place de la Prefecture, where it remains today. ZANIS remains the director of the Local CADI, assisted by LINIVER.

2. Actually the Million Forests are 4) Rural Forests, composed of two groups: 1) a) and b) and 3) Urban Forests, planted near the cities. The Rural Forests are divided into the Forests of the Mountains and the Forests of the Plains, which are planted on the mountains and the plains, respectively, and are the main part of the Million Forests.

0. A certain number of the cases are on a par with the others as to the nature of the evidence. Among these is Case No. 1.

4. Recommendations and actions (What can be done to prevent this from happening again?)

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the problem.

SUBJECT: GENERAL: Transmittal

SPECIFIC: List of Allied Communist dominated organizations

1. Attached is a copy of a list given to Leon H. CHAMMAN recently by Jack West, Legal Attache. The attachment was originally given to West by Keith Angell, Security Office, ECA-OSI, Paris. Mr. Angell advised that he had received this list from a source in the Prefecture of Police, Paris, and that it is based upon information in Prefecture files and investigation by that agency.

2. It will be noted that this list is apparently of quite recent date in that these international organizations recently expelled from France (IPDU, WFDU, WFTU) are noted as "dissolved".

3. Mr. West also transmitted a copy of this list to Mr. William Crawford in the Embassy here.
